

School News

A peek behind our classroom doors

MARCH 31, 2019

First place: Nina Navabi, grade 6

Second place: Maggie Rose, grade 8

Third place: Caitlin Woodward, grade 6

Science Fair 2019

Congratulations to all of our middle-schoolers for their impressive work in this year's SRS Science Fair. After careful consideration, our panel of judges gave the top awards to finalists Nina Navabi, Maggie Rose, Caitlin Woodward, Maddie Foulkes, Alex Wilson, and Tommy Flaherty.

Photos by MJ Zafis-Garcia

Maddie Foulkes, shown with fellow finalists Tommy Flaherty and Alex Wilson, presents her experiment before the judges.

Judges listen to the finalists as they make their presentations. Thank you to this year's panel: Tony Cammarota, Alan Czarapata, Heidi Dorward, Andres Dulcey, Jennifer Guo, Linnea Lundh, Jim O'Donnell, John Partridge, Meg Quickel, Jennifer Wang, Donna Zachariasiewicz, and Jim Zink.

SRNS Memory Lane

REMEMBER WHEN

St. Raphael Nursery School opened in 1969 in space rented from St. Raphael Church as a non-sectarian program for 3- and 4-year-olds. In the early years, SRNS operated as a semi-cooperative organization entirely run by parents. In 1989, the preschool began operating under the auspices of St. Raphael Parish.

PHOTOS WANTED

For our 50th anniversary celebration, we are looking for photos, especially from between 1969 and 1989. To share your SRNS memories (from any years), visit www.srnsm.org.

JUNE 1 PARTY

Save the date for our #SRNS50th celebration! Spread the word!

St. Raphael Nursery School teacher Betty Mullaly greets students in the mid-1970s.
(Do you have SRNS photos to share? Visit www.srnsm.org.)

Seussical™ JR.

7 p.m. Fri 4/5

2 p.m. Sat 4/6

For tickets, visit straphaelschoolmd.org

7-10 p.m. 4·10·19

- Shopping!
- Raffle!
- Yummy treats!
- Free admission!

St. Raphael Trumpet Room

www.straphaelschoolmd.org | www.srnsm.org |    @SRsrockville