A peek behind our classroom doors

SEPTEMBER 8, 2019

Watch us SHINE!

St. Raphael School's theme for the new school year—Shine!—celebrates not only recent accolades received locally and nationally but also reflects on the goodness that is the core of SRS. Join us in welcoming our new teachers:

P.E. teacher Andrew Price comes to SRS after 11 years at Our Lady of Victory School. John Henderson joins our middle-school team in the seventh grade to teach middle-school social studies and seventh-grade religion. Molly Nagel joins our Resource Department with experience in special and elementary education and will also assist in the library. Rebecca Maurer, back in the D.C. area and expecting her first baby, will be returning as SRS music and drama teacher. Also returning is Patty Timm as 4-Plus assistant at SRNS, having previously worked at Montgomery Blair High School, SRNS, and St. Elizabeth School.

Here's to a beautiful new year where we shine, and He shines through each of us! We are St. Raphael!

Car wash Saturday

Our eighth-graders are holding a car wash to help finance their graduation-year expenses. Stop by the school 9 a.m.-12 p.m. Saturday, and, for just $10, you'll drive away in a sparkling-clean ride while supporting a great cause! Refreshments will be available for purchase as well.
